

What's New from Stonehouse Nursery Shipping Fall 2019–Spring 2020

Even experienced perennial growers get excited about what's new! Here's a look at ten of our best new varieties this season. Whether you are seeking interesting new natives or flashy perennials with strong retail appeal, we've got you covered.

These varieties may be new, but you can expect the same exceptional quality plugs you've come to rely on over our 27-year history. Strongly rooted crops with heavy crowns are the foundation of your success and ours alike.
